

UNESCO World Press Freedom Day 2023

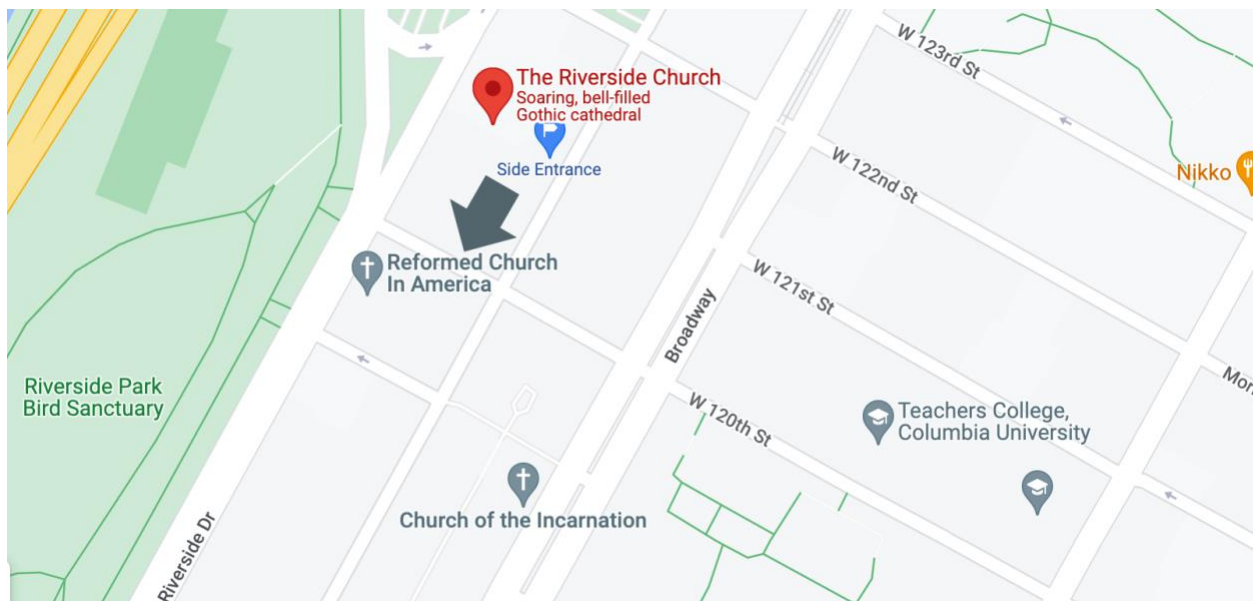

“Shaping a Future of Rights – Freedom of expression as a driver for all other human rights”

Columbia Global Freedom of Expression (GfOE) Side Events

Directions to MLK Conference Room 527, Riverside Church, Columbia University

The Side Events will be held at the Global Freedom of Expression Offices in Riverside Church in Conference Room 527 on the 5th Floor of the MLK Tower.

- Riverside Church, 91 Claremont Ave (between Broadway and Riverside Drive), New York, NY 10027
 - ⇒ Use the entrance located on 120th Street, between Claremont and Riverside Drive. The door is just past the parking garage, if you are coming from Claremont. Take the elevator to the 5th Floor, and Conference Room 527 is down the hallway on the left.

MTA Subway: A ticket will cost $2.75 per ride. One subway line (the No. 1 local) serves the Columbia neighborhood. The subway station is called Columbia University/116th Street. Please note: if you begin your subway journey on the #2 or #3 express train, be certain to transfer at 96th Street to the #1 train, as the #2 and #3 trains turn away from Manhattan’s Upper West Side before 116th Street. Maps of subway routes are available on the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) website. Fares on subways and local buses are $2.75 per ride, with free transfers available; riders can purchase a MetroCard at all subway stations or use contactless payment on their phones.

- ⇒ Riverside Church is about a 7-minute walk from the subway station. Walk four blocks north on Broadway, and turn left/West at 120th. Walk one block to Claremont and Riverside Church will be on the right-hand side. Continue straight on 120th for 1/2 block until you see a large wooden door next to the parking garage. Take the elevator to the 5th Floor of the MLK Tower, Room 527.
